Part V – Essay

Please respond to the following questions in a brief (200-300 word) essay. Please type your responses below.

1. What do you hope to gain personally and professionally by attending the Leadership Command College?
2. How will your attendance at the Leadership Command College benefit your agency?

Part VI – Statement of Commitment

The Leadership Command College is an intensive educational program requiring a sincere commitment of time away from your agency and the completion of a comprehensive written research project. Please read and sign the following statement.

APPLICANT’S STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT

I understand that, if selected to attend the Leadership Command College, I will be required to attend three 15-day modules.

I will be required to complete the Leadership Portfolio and the comprehensive Leadership White Paper.

I have read the Leadership Command College Rules and Guidelines and agree to abide by them.

I personally agree to complete all work assignments and projects assigned by the Institute within the required time frames. All written projects will be the result of my own independent research. I agree that, if I do not make regular progress, I may be suspended or removed from the program.

I intend to continue employment within the public sector for a period of not less than three years to apply the knowledge and skills acquired through the Leadership Command College.

Part VII – Agency Nomination (optional)

Admission to the Leadership Command College does not require the nomination of your agency. However, your likelihood for admission and completion are greatly enhanced if your supervisors are aware of the commitment you are making to improve your ability to perform in a law enforcement agency. If your agency supports your commitment to attend the Institute, please ask your immediate supervisor or agency executive to read the above statement of commitment and sign below in the space provided.

I have read the statement of commitment and will support this applicant’s attendance at the Leadership Command College.
